PART VIII – TERMINATION OF CONTRACTS

- Termination By Employer 57. (1) An employer may terminate a contract of employment with notice upon a determination by the competent officer following the negotiation procedure initiated under Part VI that the contract may be terminated.

*Amended/Introduced by Act 8 of 1999

**Amended/Introduced by Act 4 of 2006

- (2) Notwithstanding section 47, an employer may terminate a contract of employment with notice in the following cases –
- (a) where the worker is on probation, during his probationary period if he does not satisfactorily complete the period;
  - (b) where the worker is a trainee under section 27 (a) at the end of the training period if he fails to satisfactorily complete his training;
  - (c) where the termination is under section 49 or 50 on the occurrence of the event specified therein;
  - (d) where the worker is a casual, part-time or domestic worker, at any time.
- (3) Notwithstanding subsection (2), notice of termination shall not be given to a worker while that worker is on sick leave or pregnant or on maternity leave unless the competent officer so authorises.
- (4) Notwithstanding section 47, an employer may terminate a contract of employment without notice where the worker has committed a serious disciplinary offence within the meaning of that expression in section 52 (2).
- (5) An employer shall not, otherwise than under this section, terminate the contract of employment of a worker.

- (6) An employer shall notify a worker,
- (a) who is employed under a fixed term contract; or
  - (b) a worker who is about to reach retirement age,
- at least 1 month before the expiration of the contract or the date of retirement, as the case may be, of that fact failing which the employer shall pay the worker referred to in paragraph (a) or (b) 1 month's wages in lieu of such notice.

*Amended/Introduced by Act 8 of 1999

**Amended/Introduced by Act 4 of 2006

- Frustration Of Contracts 58. (1) A contract is frustrated when it becomes impossible of performance as when, among other things or reasons-
- (a) the business of the employer ceases through its becoming prohibited or illegal under any written law.
  - (b) a worker is disqualified through the suspension or cancellation of any license, permit, registration or authority required under the written law for the purpose of exercising the occupation or profession of the worker,
- and, except in the case of paragraph (b), the worker, other than a casual worker, is entitled upon frustration of the contract to one month's notice or to payment in lieu and to any additional compensation payable under section 62.
- (2) Where a contract is frustrated through a business ceasing as a result of an acquisition by Government under the Lands Acquisition Act ; any liability under subsection (1) for payment in lieu of notice and payment of compensation lies primarily upon the Government subject to reimbursement by the employer.
- (3) For the avoidance of doubt it is declared that where a contract is frustrated, the negotiation procedure under Part VI and the grievance procedure under section 61 do not apply.
- (4) An employer whose business ceases under subsection (1) (a) shall forthwith notify the competent officer of the same.
- Period of Notice by Employer 59. Termination under section 57 (1) and (2) requires-
- (a) in the case of any casual worker, one day's notice;
  - (b) in the case of a worker on probation seven day's notice;
  - (c) in the case of any other worker, other than a non-Seychellois worker, one month's notice;
  - (d) in the case of a non Seychellois worker not being a casual worker or a worker on probation, the period of notice specified in the contract of employment of the worker or, where a period of notice is not specified, one month's notice.
- Termination by Worker 60. (1) A worker may terminate the contract of employment of the worker –
- (a) in the case of any casual worker, with one day's notice;
  - (b) in the case of a worker on probation, with seven day's notice;
  - (c) in the case of any other worker, other than a non-Seychellois worker, with one month's notice;

(d) in the case of a non-Seychellois worker, not being a casual worker or a worker on probation, with the period of notice specified in the contract, or where a period of notice is not specified, with one month's notice.

(2) A worker, other than a casual worker, may terminate the contract of employment of the worker, without giving prior notice –

- ** (a) where the employer is in breach of the contract with the worker and such breach justifies termination;
- ** (b) where the employer acts in contravention of the Act and such contravention justifies termination; and
- ** (c) where the worker has been laid off,

** but the worker shall inform the employer forthwith in writing of the termination and of the reason therefore and shall obtain from the employer the certificate of employment referred to in section 69.

Grievance Procedure

61. (1) A worker –

- (a) whose contract of employment is terminated –
  - (i) pursuant to section 57 (2) (a) or (b);
  - (ii) for a serious disciplinary offence pursuant to section 57 (4);
- (b) who terminates his contract under section 60 (2) (a) or (b), may initiate the grievance procedure.

* (1A) Where a worker or employer has registered a grievance, the competent officer shall first endeavor to bring about a settlement of grievance by mediation or thereafter –

- (a) if the employer and the worker agree to a settlement the term of such settlement shall be reduced to writing and the parties shall sign the document in the presence of the competent officer and the settlement shall have effect as if it were a determination made by the competent officer ;

*Amended/Introduced by Act 8 of 1999

**Amended/Introduced by Act 4 of 2006

(b) if a settlement is not effected after a lapse of fourteen days the competent officer shall proceed to make the determination.

(2) Upon conclusion of the grievance procedure initiated under subsection (1), the competent officer may determine as follows –

(a) in the case of subsection (1) (a) –

(i) that termination is justified;

(ii) that termination is not justified and that the worker is reinstated in the post or offered other suitable employment and that, where applicable, some disciplinary measure or none be taken in lieu of termination;

(iii) that termination is not justified but, as it would be impractical or inconvenient to reinstate the worker in the post or offer the worker other suitable employment, allow the termination subject, in the case of subsection (1) (a) (ii), to the payment in lieu of notice of one month's wages or, where an amount is specified in his contract of employment in the case of a non-Seychellois worker referred to in section 59 (c), that amount, and in any other case subject to the termination taking effect on the date of the competent officer's determination.

(b) in the case of subsection (1) (b) –

(i) that termination is not justified, in which case the worker is entitled to the payment of one month's salary in addition to any benefits or compensation the worker may have earned;

(ii) that termination is justified, in which case the worker is liable to pay the employer a sum equal to one month's salary or, where an amount specified in the contract of employment in the case of a non-Seychellois worker referred to in section 60 (1) (c),

*Amended/Introduced by Act 8 of 1999

**Amended/Introduced by Act 4 of 2006

that amount and the employer may deduct the sum or the amount from any payments owed by him to the worker in accordance with section 33 (2).

Compensation Upon Termination

62. Where –

- (a) a contract of employment is frustrated, other than under Section 58 (1) (b);
- (b) a contract of employment is terminated by an employer –
  - (i) under section 57 (2) (a) or (b) and the grievance procedure is initiated by the worker with the result that termination is allowed under section 61 (2) (a) (iii);
  - (ii) other than for a serious disciplinary offence under section 57 (4);
- (c) a contract of employment is terminated by the worker and the competent officer determines pursuant to section 61 (2) (b) (i) that the worker is justified in terminating the contract, compensation is payable to the worker, in addition to his wages and any benefits earned, in accordance with section 47 (2) (b) or (c).

*Compensation upon resignation or retirement

62A (1) Where a worker -

- (a) resigns, otherwise than in the circumstances referred to in subsection (2); or
- (b) retires

on completion of not less than five years continuous service under an employer, compensation for length of service shall be payable to such worker, in addition the wages and other benefits earned, in accordance with section 47(2)(b).

- (2) Compensation shall not be payable to a worker under subsection (1) where the worker resigns during a period of suspension from the service for disciplinary reasons, or where the circumstances of the resignation are such that serious disciplinary action could have been taken against the worker by the employer.

*Amended/Introduced by Act 8 of 1999

**Amended/Introduced by Act 4 of 2006

(3) Where a worker who has completed not less than five years Continuous service dies while in employment, compensation for length of service shall be payable to the legal representative of such worker, in addition to the wages and other benefits earned by the worker, in accordance with section 47(2)(b).”;

Payment
In lieu of
Notice      63.      Wherever notice is required to be given under this Part, payment corresponding to the period of notice required or to such part of it as is not worked may be made in lieu.

*Interest
Payable      63A      Where compensation is payable to a worker in respect of termination of employment under the provisions of this Part, interest on the amount of such compensation shall be payable at such rate as may be prescribed by the Minister, for the period between the date on which such compensation becomes payable and the date of actual payment. For the purpose of this section compensation becomes payable upon the determination of the competent officer, or the ruling of the Minister as the case may be.

PART IX – MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Dispute      64.      Wherever a dispute, other than one for which the grievance procedure is expressly provided under other provisions of this Act, arises between employer and worker and internal dispute procedures, if any have been exhausted without agreement, either party to the dispute may initiate the grievance procedure.

Appeal and and Review      65.      (1)      Subject to subsection (2), wherever an employer or worker is aggrieved by an authority, approval, decision or determination of a competent officer, the employer or the employers’ organisation on behalf of the employer, the worker or the Union on behalf of the worker, may appeal against it to the Minister.

(2)      An appeal under subsection (1), other than an appeal against a determination of the competent officer consequent upon initiation of the negotiation or grievance procedure, shall be lodged with the Chief Executive within 14 days or such other period as may be prescribed after the date on which the authority, approval, decision or determination was given.

- (4) Upon an appeal or review under this section, the Minister may consult with the Employment Advisory Board before giving the ruling on such appeal or review.
- (5) A reference in this Act to the authority, approval, decision or determination of a competent officer is to be construed, where the context so admits, as reference to that authority, approval, decision or determination as confirmed, reversed or amended by a ruling of the Minister upon an appeal or review.

- (6) Subject to subsection (8), a ruling of the Minister under this section shall be given within 42 days or such longer period as may be prescribed after the date of lodgment of the appeal or of the application for review, as the case may be.
- (7) A ruling of the Minister made under this section shall not be vitiated solely on the ground that it was not given within the period specified in subsection (6).

- (8) The Minister may revoke a ruling referred to in subsection (6) within a period of 14 days after the date of the ruling and give a new ruling if he is satisfied that relevant facts in existence at the time when the original authority, approval, decision or determination was given, were not made known to the competent officer or the Minister and that it is just and equitable that a new ruling be given. The Minister shall hear the parties concerned before giving the new ruling.
- (9) In any proceedings for an offence under section 76(1) for failing to comply with a decision of the Minister made under this section, a certificate purporting to be issued by the Minister shall be evidence of the facts stated therein.”;
